

Rent Paris reveals 'Premium Hotel Service' with added value extras for guests

RENT PARIS has revealed its latest service named 'Premium Hotel Service', which aims to deliver a difference in the level of attention it gives to customers and their hotel bookings.

Beginning as soon as the customer arrives at the hotel, the service commences with an envelope handed to guests at reception, which contains information, gifts and invitations.

These include a free Wi-Fi connection wherever the guest is in Paris; a tour of the neighbourhood with key aspects and personal recommendations for little restaurants and shops shared by the company's team; and an invitation to free 'Sunday Tasting Sessions' held every Sunday from April to late July and from September to late October, where guests can enjoy cake made by famous pastry chef Sebastien Gaudard, a glass of Champagne and share their impressions about Paris with other customers.
